From the desk of Father Koys
Dear Parishioners,

Today we hear Our Lord clearly stating we are Baptized in three names; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The entirety of our Catholic lives revolves around this great mystery. God's nature resembles a family. God in Himself is a community of persons. We must never tire of trying to understand this even though we must also understand that we will never fully understand it. One way I have found that helps me appreciate the Trinity is to accept a simple fact of life. I am constantly convinced of the fact that people always try to imitate what they admire. We are attracted to things we find good and repulsed by what we consider evil. I admire organized people and so I try to be organized myself, though admittedly I fall short of the best. I admire athletic people and so I try to keep myself in good shape, though admittedly I fall short in the department too. Nonetheless, we all try to imitate what we admire. The doctrine of the Trinity gives us rich ideas about the deity we worship. The importance of these ideas become apparent when we compare the Trinitarian religions with the non-Trinitarian mono-theistic religions. Since we try to imitate what we admire, and God is to be admired and adored above everything it seems obviously to me that trying to imitate a Trinitarian God is a lot harder than a single person God. Why is this? It is true for the same reason it is harder to create peace and harmony in a group of people than it is living a solitary life. This is the undeniable truth behind the fantasy we have from time to time to run away from it all. That usually means separating ourselves from the people around us who bother us the most. But this fantasy is a temptation from the devil because it implies that other people are hell, and that happiness consists in a solitary life. Isn't that the reason why Paul Simon wrote the song, I am a Rock?

If we shift our attention to the political world, we can appreciate why the Middle East has been plagued with conflict. The two dominant religions there are non-Trinitarian mono-theistic religions. A non-Trinitarian God does not carry with it the more difficult demand of a Trinitarian God. We see the God of Moses commands us to follow the 10 Commandments, which is a great start, as Jews and Christians alike work to follow these rules for life. Muslims, as they admire Allah, are called to imitate Mohamed. They find themselves called to follow a military general's example. This feast of the Trinity sheds light on the fact that neither Judaism nor Islam hear their God calling them to imitate "US", as we hear in Christianity. I sometimes consider the 10 Commandments as the house rules a mom puts on the refrigerator door or the rules a teacher lays out in the beginning of the year. Follow these rules are we'll all get along fine. Rules are necessary to keep the peace. As Pope Leo XIII says in "On the Nature of True Liberty", "First of all, there must be law, that is a fixed rule of teaching what is to be done and what is to be left undone." But true peace is more than the absence of war. True peace requires that we strive to imitate the peace that exists in the Blessed Trinity. That peace is a state of perfect love. Love requires a community of persons and not just the following of laws. Therefore, a religion that teaches that it's God is a community of persons, distinct in personalities yet equal in dignity will push its followers to imitate that kind of loving peace. How different the world would be if all religions recognized the Trinity. How different all Christians would be if we worked harder to imitate what we adore.

Z biurka wikariusza pastora
Drodzy Parafianie,

W dzisiejszej ewangelii wyraźnie słyszymy, jak nasz Pan stwierdza, że jesteśmy ochrzczeni trzema imionami: Ojciec, Syn i Ducha Świętego. Całe nasze katolickie życie obraca się wokół tej wielkiej tajemnicy. Bóg jest odzwierciedleniem rodziny ponieważ sam w sobie jest wspólnotą osób. Trójca św. to zagadnienie skomplikowane i niesamowicie trudne do pojęcia. Jednym ze sposobów, które pomagają mi docenić Trójcę, jest zaakceptowanie prostego faktu życia. Jestem stale przekonany o tym, że ludzie zawsze starają się naśladować to, co podziwiają. Przyciąga nas to, co uważamy za dobre, a odpycha nas to, co uważamy za złe. Podziwiam zorganizowanych ludzi, więc staram się wprowadzać tę dobrą cechę w moje życie, choć przyznaję, że nie dorównuję najlepszym. Podziwiam wysportowanych ludzi, więc staram się utrzymywać w dobrej kondycji, choć przyznaję, że i w tym aspekcie mi nie wychodzi. Niemniej jednak wszyscy staramy się naśladować to, co podziwiamy. Doktryna Trójcy Świętej daje nam bogate idee na temat bóstwa, które czcimy. Znaczenie tych idei staje się oczywiste, gdy porównamy religie trynitarnie z nietrynitarnymi religiami monoteistycznymi. Ponieważ staramy się naśladować to, co podziwiamy, a Bóg jest do podziwiania i adorowania ponad wszystko, wydaje mi się oczywiste, że próba naśladowania Boga Trójcy Świętej jest o wiele trudniejsza niż Boga jednej osoby. Dlaczego tak jest? Jest to prawdą z tego samego powodu, dla którego trudniej jest stworzyć pokój i harmonię w grupie ludzi niż żyjąc w samotności. To niezaprzeczalna prawda stojąca za fantazją, którą od czasu do czasu mamy, aby uciec od wszystkiego. To zazwyczaj oznacza oddzielenie się od ludzi wokół nas, którzy nas najbardziej irytują. Ale ta fantazja jest pokusą od diabła, ponieważ sugeruje, że inni ludzie są piekłem, a szczęście polega na życiu w samotności. Czy nie dlatego Paul Simon napisał piosenkę "Jestem skałą"?

Jeśli skierujemy naszą uwagę na świat polityki, możemy zrozumieć, dlaczego Bliski Wschód jest nękany konfliktami. Dwie dominujące tam religie to nietrynitarnie religie monoteistyczne. Bóg nietrynitarniej religii nie stawia przed nami tak trudnych wymagań, jak Bóg trynitarniej religii. Widzimy, że Bóg Mojżesza nakazuje nam przestrzegać Dziesięciu Przykazań, co jest doskonałym początkiem, ponieważ zarówno Żydzi, jak i chrześcijanie starają się przestrzegać tych zasad życia. Muzułmanie, podziwiając Allaha, są wezwani do naśladowania Mahometa. Czują się zobowiązani do naśladowania przykładu dowódcy wojskowego. Uroczystość Trójcy Świętej rzuca światło na fakt, że ani judaizm, ani islam nie słyszą, aby ich Bóg wzywał ich do naśladowania "NAS", jak to słyszymy w chrześcijaństwie. Czasami rozważam Dziesięć Przykazań jako zasady domowe, które mama wieszka na drzwiach lodówki, lub zasady, które nauczyciel ustala na początku roku szkolnego. Przestrzegaj tych zasad, a wszyscy będziemy się dobrze dogadywać. Wszyscy dobrze wiemy, że zasady są niezbędne do utrzymania pokoju. Jak mówi papież Leon XIII w encyklice „O Naturze Prawdziwej Wolności”: „Przed wszystkim musi być prawo, czyli ustalona zasada nauczania, co należy czynić, a czego unikać.” Ale prawdziwy pokój to coś więcej niż brak wojny. Prawdziwy pokój wymaga, abyśmy starali się naśladować pokój, który istnieje w Błogosławionej Trójcy. Ten pokój to stan doskonałej miłości. Miłość wymaga wspólnoty osób, a nie tylko przestrzegania praw. Dlatego religia, która uczy, że jej Bóg jest wspólnotą osób, odrębnych w osobowościach, ale równych w godności, będzie zachęcać swoich wyznawców do naśladowania tego rodzaju miłującego pokoju. Jakże inny byłby świat, gdyby wszystkie religie uznawały Trójcę. Jak bardzo różniliby się wszyscy chrześcijanie, gdybyśmy starali się bardziej naśladować to, co czcimy.

MEMORIAL DAY PRAYER

Heavenly Father,

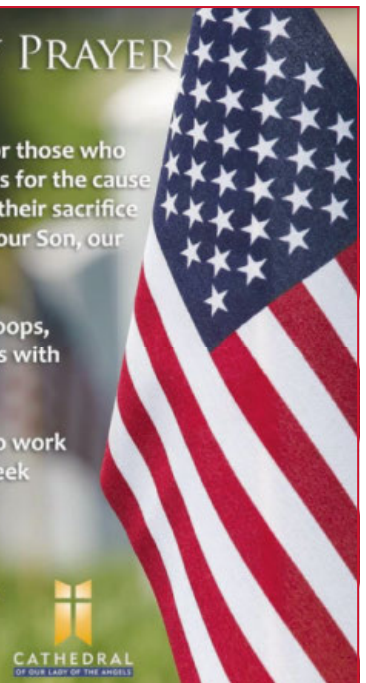

On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the example of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with your strength and peace.

Embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

We pray through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Grow Your Faith, Share the Faith

In the past few years, the term "missionary disciple" has been used by three recent Popes to motivate Catholics to live out our common evangelistic responsibility to the world. What is that? Jesus's final words on earth are known as the "Great Commission" and found in Matthew 28:19-20

"Go, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

These words are full of action: GO -> MAKE DISCIPLES -> BAPTIZE -> TEACH

Jesus never said to sit on the couch and chill out, or hide out until he returns, or to do your own thing and he'll see you later. No, he said, "Follow Me" and "If you keep my commandments and abide in my love, my joy will be yours and your joy will be complete."

Do you want that joy for yourself and others?

In response to this Great Commission given to the apostles, the Church exists to make disciples. Are you finding ways to teach others to follow Jesus and helping them become good disciples?

Being a missionary disciple ordinarily does NOT mean selling everything and preaching in a far-off land. Right where we are each of us should develop the habit of looking for the work of the Holy Spirit in our everyday lives, maybe as a parent, grandparent, godparent, RE teacher, uncle, neighbor, or friend.

We know that God is constantly pursuing every single person, every moment, to draw closer to Him. We are His hands, feet, and voice in this world. How are we growing to know, love & serve God?

Growth in Missionary Discipleship can come in stages:

Sleeper: Faith has become stale and dull. Goes through the motions by obligation.

Seeker: Looking for ways to grow in faith, hope, love, and human virtues, increasing their love for God.

Disciple: Knowing God's love through lived experience, prayer, worship, Communion, and Confession and following Jesus closely to BECOME more like Him, growing each day to be more like a saint.

Missionary Disciple: Living the faith fully and helping others know and understand God's Truth, love, and mercy, and inviting them to become the best version of themselves, more like a saint each day.

Where are you on these steps of the journey becoming a Missionary Discipleship? _____

Missionary Disciples know the gift of God that they have. They look to the Holy Spirit for openings each day to share the Good News of the Gospel: that Jesus Christ is our Savior, he died for our sins, (so we don't have to die spiritually, lost in sin.) He forgives us, He loves us, and wants us to follow Him. Share it!
