From the desk of Father Koys
Dear Parishioners,

We hear the words of our Lord, "He who humbles himself will be exalted." It is a clear request to be humble, is it not? I just finished a marvelous biography on St.

Thomas More by Joanne Paul. Talk about a man with great talents, great resources and upbringing, who, nevertheless, was considered by everyone who knew him the humblest of men. His intellect launched him into the ranks of the sought-after lawyers of his days in London.

More lived in the 1500's, when the Protestant "rebellion" was tearing apart Christendom. He was known as a wise and honest man and caught the attention of the infamous King Henry VIII. The King at first was opposed to what Martin Luther was doing in Germany and admired Thomas' explanations and defenses of Catholicism against the ideas of "Protestantism." But it would be hard to find two other characters in history that illustrate better opposing examples of a humble man and a proud egotistical man. One of the great scenes in the movie, "A Man For All Seasons", has Thomas Cromwell, the King's "bull dog," trying to find evidence against Thomas More. By this time, Henry VIII was pushing for an annulment of his marriage with Queen Catherine. Pope Clement VII wouldn't grant it. A gold cup was given to More as a bribe, but Thomas was quick to throw it in the river. The Duke of Norfolk screams at Cromwell that Thomas More was the only judge since Cato who did not use his office for personal gain. Although Thomas More had been exalted by the King previously, making him Chancellor of England, he was about to be brought very low. You probably know how it all ends. The King's ego and his insatiable desire for Ann Boleyn (and 4 subsequent wives) makes him the poster child for the proud man in our Gospel. More's famous last words, used in the movie, are, "I die the King's good servant but God's first."

In Paul's new book, we learn a detail that illustrates yet again More's tremendous humility. Thomas More had lots of time to think about his situation and the problems of making a secular, civil authority head over the ecclesiastical authority of the Pope. He, like many others about to die, had prepared a long speech. But Henry ordered the chief "jailer" to order Thomas to be brief. The jailer threatened Thomas, "If you wish it to go well for your family after you're gone, I suggest you be brief." His love for his wife and children was as strong as his love for God and the church. And so, brief he was.

Now, the real lesson for us today is not just to be humble ourselves. An important job for all of us today is to see how those who are brought low by secular authorities-are in God's eyes-exalted. We might say that being students of the Saints finetunes our ability to know who is exalted by God in the end. Unfortunately, their saintly status often doesn't get recognized until long after they're gone.

Fr Thomas Koys, M.A., S.T.L.

Dear Parents and Parishioners,
This week was filled with faith, learning, and fall adventures! Our first graders led a beautiful all-school Mass on Tuesday, joyfully guiding our community in prayer and song. On Thursday, our fifth and sixth graders explored the Morton Arboretum, where they investigated the life cycle of a tree—from seed to soil—and identified some of Illinois' most common trees. Meanwhile, our Pre-K students enjoyed a wonderful fall field trip to Siegel's Cottonwood Farm, taking in the beauty and blessings of the season. We closed the week by gathering with our faith partners to pray the rosary and capture our 2025–2026 school year photo in the church, a special reminder of our unity as a faith-filled community. Our faculty also came together to continue growing as educators, deepening our commitment to empowering students to explore their unique interests and passions in learning.

Lemont Catholic Anointing of the Sick Bilingual Mass

On Saturday, November 15th, SS. Cyril & Methodius Parish will celebrate the Anointing of the Sick at the 11 AM Mass. This will be a bilingual (English-Polish) Mass.

We extend an invitation to those in our Lemont Catholic Family who feel that the Celebration of Anointing will provide help for them in sickness and aging of their bodies.

In the past, the anointing was done near the time of death. Theology today understands anointing as the Sacrament of the Sick rather than at the time of approaching death. The Anointing of the Sick is the prayer of Christ and His Church for the physical and spiritual health of the sick person.

Who may be anointed?

- ❖ A sick person may be anointed before he/she undergoes surgery, whether or not the surgery is serious.
- ❖ Persons with chronic illness.
- ❖ Older persons, even if they are not suffering from dangerous illness.
- ❖ Mentally disabled persons and chemically dependent persons.
- ❖ A sick child may be anointed in order to be comforted and uplifted by the Sacrament.

After the Mass, there will be a luncheon for all those who attend in our Parish Life Building. In order for us to prepare for this luncheon, we ask that you RSVP by calling Szymon at 630-257-2776 or emailing him at skoszarek@archchicago.org no later than Wednesday, November 5th. You can also fill out the form below and return it in the collection basket.

World Mission Sunday

Thank You to Fr. Valdi and the Parishioners of St. Cyril and Methodius Parish, On this World Mission Sunday, we celebrate the universal mission of the Church to bring the love of Christ to all corners of the world. It is a day to reflect on our call to pray, give, and go forth in service to the poorest and most vulnerable.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Fr. Valdi and all parishioners of St. Cyril and Methodius Parish for your continuous support of missionary work, especially in Kenya, Uganda, and Haiti. Your generosity is a tangible sign of faith in action.

We are particularly thankful for your donation of $6,498.00. Thanks to this gift, the Missionary Brothers in Kenya were able to furnish a newly constructed physical therapy room. This clinic will serve orphaned boys and children from the local community, many of whom would not have access to proper therapy without this support.

Your prayers, encouragement, and generosity help sustain this vital work and inspire others to follow Christ's call to serve.

If you feel called to make a difference, we invite you to join us on one of our mission trips. Your life will be forever transformed by the experience of serving those in greatest need.

May God continue to bless Fr. Valdi, the parish staff, and every member of St. Cyril and Methodius Parish. May your faith, love, and missionary spirit continue to grow, bringing hope and joy to the poorest of the poor around the world.

With prayers and gratitude,
MOP Volunteers – Chicago Team

Światowa Niedziela Misyjna

Podziękowanie dla ks. Waldiego i Parafian Parafii św. Cyryla i Metodego,

Z okazji Światowej Niedzieli Misyjnej świętujemy uniwersalną misję Kościoła, aby nieść miłość Chrystusa do wszystkich zakątków świata. To dzień, w którym przypominamy sobie nasze powołanie, by modlić się, dzielić i służyć tym, którzy są najbardziej potrzebujący i najbardziej bezbronni.

Składamy serdeczne podziękowania ks. Waldiemu oraz wszystkim parafianom Parafii św. Cyryla i Metodego za nieustanne wsparcie pracy misyjnej, zwłaszcza w Kenii, Ugandzie i Haiti. Wasza hojność jest prawdziwym świadectwem wiary w działanie.

Jesteśmy szczególnie wdzięczni za niedawną darowiznę w wysokości $ 6,498.00. Dzięki tej ofercie Misjonarze w Kenii mogli wyposażyć nowo wybudowany pokój rehabilitacyjny. Klinika ta będzie służyć zarówno sierotom z domu prowadzonego przez Braci, jak i dzieciom z lokalnej społeczności — dzieciom, które nie miałyby dostępu do odpowiedniej terapii bez tego wsparcia.

Wasze modlitwy, zachęta i hojność wspierają tę ważną pracę i inspirują innych, by podążać za Chrystusem w służbie potrzebującym.

Jeśli czujesz powołanie, pomocy innym, zapraszamy Cię do udziału w jednej z naszych podróży misyjnych. Twoje życie zmieni się na zawsze dzięki doświadczeniu służenia najbardziej potrzebującym.

Niech Bóg nadal błogosławi ks. Waldiemu, pracownikom parafialnym i wszystkim parafianom Parafii św. Cyryla i Metodego. Niech Wasza wiara, miłość i duch misyjny nadal rosną, przynosząc nadzieję i radość najbardziej potrzebującym w całym świecie.

Z modlitwą oraz wdzięcznością,
Wolontariusze MOP – Grupa Chicago

Z biurka wikariusza proboszcza
Drodzy Parafianie,

Sluchając słów naszego Pana: „Kto się uniża, będzie wywyższony” zadajmy sobie pytanie, czyż nie jest to jasne wezwanie do pokory? Właśnie skończyłem wspaniałą biografię św. Tomasza More, której autorem jest dr. Joanne Paul. Cóż to za człowiek był, ogromne talenty, wielkie możliwości i wychowanie, a mimo to, według wszystkich, którzy go znali, najpokorniejszy z ludzi. Jego intelekt wprowadził go do grona najbardziej poszukiwanych prawników Londynu. Żył w XVI wieku w okresie gdy protestancka reformacja rozdzierała chrześcijaństwo. Był znany jako człowiek mądry i uczciwy, a jego osoba zwróciła uwagę niesławnego króla Henryka VIII. Król początkowo sprzeciwiał się temu, co robił Marcin Luter w Niemczech, i podziwiał wyjaśnienia oraz obronę katolicyzmu przedstawianą przez Tomasza przeciwko ideom „protestantyzmu”. Ale trudno byłoby znaleźć dwie inne postacie w historii, które lepiej ilustrują przeciwstawne przykłady człowieka pokornego i człowieka pysznego, wręcz egoistycznego.

Jedną z wielkich scen filmu Człowiek na Każdą Porę Roku (A Man For All Seasons) ukazuje Tomasza Cromwella, „buldoga” króla, który próbuje znaleźć dowody przeciwko Tomaszowi More. W tym czasie Henryk VIII dążył do unieważnienia małżeństwa z królową Katarzyną. Papież Klemens VII nie chciał go udzielić. To też złoty puchar został przekazany Tomaszowi jako łapówka w niższym sądzie, lecz on natychmiast wyrzucił go do rzeki. Księżę Norfolk wykrzyczał wtedy na Cromwella, że Tomasz More był jedynym sędzią od czasów Katona, który nie wykorzystywał swojego urzędu do osobistych korzyści. Choć Tomasz został wcześniej wywyższony przez króla, który uczynił go kanclerzem Anglii, teraz miał zostać bardzo poniżony. Przypuszczam, że zapewne już wiesz jak to się skończyło. Ego króla i jego nienasycone pragnienie Anny Boleyn (oraz czterech kolejnych żon) czynią z niego podręcznikowy przykład człowieka pysznego w naszej Ewangelii. Słynne ostatnie słowa Tomasza More, użyte również w filmie, brzmiały: „Umieram jako wierny sługa króla, ale najpierw Boga”.

W nowej książce Joanne Paul poznajemy szczegóły, który jeszcze raz ukazuje ogromną pokorę Tomasza More. Otóż miał on wiele czasu, aby zastanowić się nad swoją sytuacją i nad problemem, czy świecka, cywilna władza może stać ponad władzą kościelną papieża. Jak wielu innych skazańców, przygotował długą mowę. Ale Henryk rozkazał głównemu strażnikowi więzienia, by nakazał Tomaszowi streścić się do minimum. Strażnik zastraszając go powiedział: „Jeśli chcesz, aby twojej rodzinie dobrze się powodziło po twojej śmierci, radzę ci być zwięzłym.” Miłość Tomasza do żony i dzieci była równie silna jak jego miłość do Boga i Kościoła, dlatego był zwięzły.

Dzisiejsza lekcja dla nas nie polega jedynie na tym, aby samemu być pokornym. Ważnym zadaniem dla nas wszystkich jest dostrzegać, że ci, którzy zostają poniżeni przez wyższe władze, w oczach Boga są wywyższeni. Możemy powiedzieć, że studiowanie żywotów świętych wyostreza naszą zdolność rozpoznawania kogo Bóg w końcu wywyższa. Niestety, ich świętość bardzo często zostaje uznana dopiero długo po ich śmierci.

Fr Thomas Koys, M.A., S.T.L.

Fun. Rejuvenating. Togetherness: TOB

It was a joy to see couples of all ages, many with infants and toddlers attend Father Loya's presentation: THEOLOGY OF THE BODY: THE COMPLEMENTARITY OF MEN AND WOMEN held on September 16th in the St. Cyril Parish Life Center.

Father Loya, was incredibly inspiring to the large crowd of both young and seasoned couples.

Some of the key takeaways from the Theology of the Body evening presentation were:

- If we truly live by the Divine Wisdom in the "Theology of the Body" there would be no divorce, abortion, homosexuality, or transgenderism. Sadly, mankind like Adam, choose their own way instead of God's way.
- God wanted to make himself known on earth in the flesh and He did so by the creation of man and woman who fully and truly become what they are meant to be when they become "one" creature in marriage.
- "Theology of the Body" calls for a husband to say in words and actions to his wife "You are more important than me." And for a wife to say in return to her husband, "No, you are more important than me." And for this "loop" of kindness and love to never end between a husband and wife.
- The only thing a person cannot live without is "intimacy" --- intimacy with God and with our spouse. Every perversion by a broken person is in truth a need for this lacking intimacy.
- When couples greatly struggle in their marriages they have either "lost" or do not remember what was taught in their Pre-Cana and Marriage Preparation.
- Truly, women and men are marvelously complementary and together in marriage they find their --- COMPLETENESS. They are not the same, they harmonize and can create a beautiful life.

Thank you, Father Loya, for sharing your joy and wisdom about marriage with us!

And thank you God for the GIFT that MARRIAGE truly is!
