Dear Parishioners,

Current man faces many questions; he asks himself: What is most important in life? What makes a man great in the sight of God and in the eyes of another man? To these questions, God provides specific answers.

Most important is the love of God and the love of others. Isn't this paradoxical, that in this world of wars, in the world of violence, in this world of depriving humans of dignity, Jesus says that the most important and first, is the love of God and the love in which all humans are engaged - with his own emotions, the mind, with all its physical power or weakness, with its all authority. Isn't this a paradox?

No, it's not, because love is understood in this way, primarily practiced this way, is the engine of human development. It is a factor enriching its soul. This proposition of love presumes the primacy of God, which turns out to be practical for humans too. This kind of love in relation to God makes a great man. A human who loves God with all his heart will also love you with respect.

To understand the importance of the commandments, Jesus shows clearly that there is no true love of humans if there is no love of God in us. The rejection of God's love is the rejection of another person. Therefore, the world needs people who love God with their whole being. In everyday living, this type of love will transform into the practice of respect for others, respect for life, freedom, and truth. In practice, love manifests itself in kindness, joy, justice, patience, courtesy, goodness, and faithfulness. These are the fruits of the Holy Spirit as taught by St. Paul. This is the truth that we should strive for in today's world.

As we celebrate the saints on this All Saints' Day, let us always remember that Love wins the world. Love wins even when it seems to lose. Jesus proved that to us with saving work on the Cross and Resurrection from the dead, and he showed us which commandment in His Kingdom is significant and what is really important to humankind. As we remember our faithful departed on All Souls' Day tomorrow, let us remember God's enduring love and mercy and unceasing hope in the resurrection through Christ, our Lord.

Thank you for your support of our church and school, and may God bless you and your loved ones,
Fr. Valdi

Dear Parents & Parishioners!
Week Eleven Recap

It was another wonderful week at SS. Cyril and Methodius School as our Comets continued to grow in faith, learning, and community! We began the week with a beautiful All-School Mass hosted by our Kindergarten students, who helped lead our school community in prayer and worship. Special thanks to our Kindergartners' 7th grade Faith Partners who helped them get through the tougher moments of Mass. Tuesday, our junior high students also had the exciting opportunity to explore their future educational pathways during High School Day, learning about the many possibilities that await them beyond SSCM. Wednesday brought a special treat as students enjoyed Mama D's lunch with their classmates, while Thursday was filled with smiles as we captured memories during yearbook group pictures and retakes. We closed the week by coming together for our schoolwide assembly, celebrating student accomplishments and continuing our focus on becoming Dignity-Driven individuals. Each of these moments reminds us how lucky we are and that greatness is built through the little things we do each day.

Go Comets!!

Lemont Catholic Anointing of the Sick Bilingual Mass

On Saturday, November 21st, SS. Cyril & Methodius Parish will celebrate the Anointing of the Sick at the 11 AM Mass. This will be a bilingual (English-Polish) Mass.

We extend an invitation to those in our Lemont Catholic Family who feel that the Celebration of Anointing will provide help for them in sickness and aging of their bodies. In the past, the anointing was done near the time of death. Theology today understands anointing as the Sacrament of the Sick rather than at the time of approaching death. The Anointing of the Sick is the prayer of Christ and His Church for the physical and spiritual health of the sick person.

Who may be anointed?

- A sick person may be anointed before he/she undergoes surgery, whether or not the surgery is serious.
- Persons with chronic illness.
- Older persons, even if they are not suffering from dangerous illness.
- Mentally disabled persons and chemically dependent persons.
- A sick child may be anointed in order to be comforted and uplifted by the Sacrament.

After the Mass, there will be a luncheon for all those who attend in our Parish Life Building. In order for us to prepare for this luncheon, we ask that you RSVP by calling Szymon at 630-257-2776 or emailing him at skoszarek@archchicago.org no later than Wednesday, November 11th. You can also fill out the form below and return it in the collection basket.

Drodzy Parafianie,

Współczesny człowiek staje wobec wielu pytań, sam stawia sobie pytanie: co jest w życiu najważniejsze? Co czyni człowieka wielkim w oczach Bożych i w oczach drugiego człowieka? I na to pytanie Jezus udziela bardzo konkretnej odpowiedzi.

Najważniejsza jest miłość Boga i wypływająca z niej miłość bliźniego. Czy nie jest to paradoks, że w świecie wojen, w świecie przemocy, w świecie pozbawiania człowieka godności, Jezus mówi, że najważniejsza i pierwsza jest miłość Boga i to miłość, w którą zaangażowany jest cały człowiek - ze swoją emocjonalnością ze swoją wolą, umysłem, z całą swoją fizyczną mocą lub małością. Cały we wszystkich swoich władzach. Czy nie jest to paradoks?

Nie, dlatego, że miłość tak rozumiana, tak przede wszystkim praktykowana, jest motorem rozwoju człowieka. Jest czynnikiem ubogacającym jego wnętrze. Taka propozycja miłowania zakłada pierwszeństwo Boga, ale pierwszeństwo, które ze względów praktycznych opłaca się również człowiekowi. Miłość tak zaproponowana przez Jezusa w stosunku do Boga, tak naprawdę czyni człowieka wielkim. Człowiek, który kocha Boga właśnie całym sobą, będzie też miłował drugiego człowieka. Nigdy nie stanie wobec drugiego jako ten, który czyni zło.

Takie pojmowanie ważności przykazań przez Jezusa pokazuje wyraźnie, że nie ma prawdziwego miłowania człowieka, jeżeli nie ma w nas miłości Boga. Odrzucenie miłości Boga jest odrzuceniem drugiego człowieka. Dlatego światu potrzeba ludzi umiających kochać Boga całym sobą, w życiu takich ludzi ta miłość przełoży się na praktykę: szacunku innych, poszanowanie życia i ołności, prawdy, w praktyce miłość przejawia się w życzliwości, radości, sprawiedliwości, cierpliwości, uprzejmości, dobroci, wierności. To są jej owoce płynące od Ducha Świętego jak uczy nas św. Paweł. To jest sprawa o którą nam ludziom współczesnym warto zabiegać.

Gdy obchodzimy uroczystość Wszystkich Świętych, pamiętajmy zawsze, że Miłość zwycięża świat. Miłość zwycięża nawet wtedy, gdy wydaje się, że przegrywa. Jezus udowodnił nam to swoim zbawczym dziełem na Krzyżu i Zmartwychwstaniem, pokazując nam, które przykazanie w Jego Królestwie jest ważne i co naprawdę ma znaczenie dla ludzkości. Gdy jutro, w Dzień Zaduszny, wspominamy naszych wiernych zmarłych, pamiętajmy o nieprzemijającej miłości i miłosierdziu Boga i nieustannie pokładajmy nadzieję w zmartwychwstaniu przez Chrystusa, Pana naszego.

Dziękuję za ciągle wsparcie i hojność dla Parafii Św. Cyryla i Metodego. Życzę miłego tygodnia i niech Bóg błogosławi Was i Waszych najbliższych,
Ks. Waldemar

Growing Together in Marriage

Our Young Married Couples group recently strengthened their relationships through a "speed-dating"-style discussion inspired by How to Succeed in Your Marriage by Carlos Encina. Couples reflected on:

- Putting your spouse first: What small, everyday choices help you place your spouse's needs and preferences ahead of your own?
- Navigating disagreements: What healthy approaches do you use to work through conflict?
- Setting technology boundaries: How do you remain fully present to one another?
- Praying as a couple: What role did prayer play in your family growing up, and how has that experience shaped your prayer life together?
